The continuing nature of current operations in response to the Global War on Terrorism (GWOT) require certain mobilized personnel to be transitioned to ADSW orders beyond their two-year mobilized orders. Reference (a) provides guidance that permits volunteers to remain on active duty in support of the GWOT beyond 24 months of mobilization with the provision of transitioning from mobilization under 10 U.S.C. 12302 to voluntary active duty under 10 U.S.C. 12301 (d). Reference (b) authorized payment of per diem up to 365 days for mobilized reserve personnel and active duty personnel reassigned in support of said operations. Reference (c) authorized payment of per diem up to 730 days for mobilized reserve personnel and active duty in support of said operations. Reference (d) authorized payment of per diem up to 1095 days for mobilized reserve and active duty personnel in support of said operations. Reference (e) authorized payment of per diem up to 1461 days for mobilized reserve and active duty personnel in support of said operations. The authority to pay per diem specified in references (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) is extended to a maximum of 1826 days.
